

Mary Elizabeth Stinchcomb

May 4, 1925 - July 1, 2012

Mary Elizabeth Stinchcomb died on July 1, 2012, at her home in Grasonville, MD. She was 87.

Born in Baltimore County on May 4, 1925, she was the daughter of the late Addison and Blanche Royston Foster. She grew up in north Baltimore County and was a graduate of Sparks High School. Soon after high school, she married Douglas W. Stinchcomb on February 28, 1948.

She was a homemaker and the family resided in Anne Arundel County. In 1962, they purchased a summer home in Grasonville, where they later moved permanently in 1991. She enjoyed gardening, cooking, and spending time with her family.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 64 years, Douglas W. Stinchcomb; her children: Susan Eckman of Arnold, MD, Keith Stinchcomb of Lancaster, PA, and Carmel Stinchcomb Smith of Centreville, MD; a brother, Vernon Foster of Baltimore County, MD; six grandchildren, Robin, Jeremy, Jennifer, Macy, Sara Page, and Cara; and seven great-grandchildren, Daphne, Georgia, Reed, Soren, Anton, Taylor and Phoenix.

A private celebration of life will be held on July 7, 2012, at 2 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice.

“ Edna thought the world of Betty and we often heard many stories of their times together as friends and neighbors. She was a sweetheart and I'm sure they are in each other's arms once again. Our thoughts and prayers are with each of you.
