Mary Elizabeth Brown Straub, wife of the late, Charles Edward Straub, Jr., formerly of Christiansburg VA, died peacefully on Sunday morning July 8, 2012, at her home in Chestertown, MD.

Betty was born in Washington, DC, on January 6, 1916. She was the eldest daughter of Thomas Richard and Waunetah Tankersley Brown. Betty was predeceased by sisters, Waunetah Brown Hall and Charlie Brown Robinson.

Betty is survived by one sister, Bertie Brown Markam, Parma, OH; three children and their respective spouses, Charles Edward, III, and wife, Lynn, Joseph and wife, Barbara, Suzanne Moore and husband, Don; her grandchildren; and great-grandchildren, Charles Edward, IV, wife, Mary Claire and children, Shannon and Ryan, Erik Stephens, wife Erin and daughter Rylee, Stuart and wife, Gina, Ann De Oliveria, husband, Victor and son Liam, Christian, Maggie & Mollie. Betty also is survived by a beloved big yellow cat "Mr. Hobbs."

In 2003 Betty extended her family to include Sarabijit Vilkhua a devoted caregiver and companion until the end. As time progressed, the family of caregivers broadened to other special women including those associated with Queen Anne's County Hospice for who care knew no bounds. We are deeply indebted to Mark and Jane Garver from Seniors At Home for their devotion to our mother.
