“ My sincerest condolences to the family in the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort in knowing God is close to the brokenhearted (Psalm 34:18), and in fond memories shared with loved ones.

Mike, such a kind and lovely lady. Mike was the first person I worked with at the food pantry and became a dear friend. Rest in peace.

“ Oh, Mike, what a loving, beautiful, happy, loyal person -- giving so much joy and comfort to us all. You have been just the very best friend to so many -- I know I always called on you, as when Mom had her car accident and I asked you to go to the hospital 'til I could get there from Baltimore. You were and are an inspiration. I am shocked at this news, having just visited with you and Susie and Kate and Polly, and talked about your upcoming surgery. But I am comforted by the conversations we had about your not being afraid to go, whenever it might happen, and that you were totally at peace. I know several people, including my mom, who are waiting for you with open arms!

Loving sympathy to Denny, Susie, Kate, and all your family, Lynn McLain
