“ Dear Mary B, Joe, Georgeanne, Pat and Pam,

My apologies for this belated message but I only just learned of your dear mother's passing. What a lovely, caring and truly remarkable woman she was, whom I had the honor of spending some time with after she and your dad returned to Maryland in their later years.

I have the fondest memories of visiting with her as she enjoyed volunteering – and keeping a watchful eye - at the Waterfowl Festival's Artifacts Exhibit which had been re-named in honor of your father and displayed so many of his treasured hunting memorabilia.

Following her volunteer days, Mary Bea met my father at Heartfields Assisted Living where they had the pleasure of sharing meals together. I would occasionally stop by to visit during meals and your mother's fabulous sense of humor and lightheartedness could always make my quiet dad chuckle and smile.

She was an unforgettable person whose care and love for others was ever present. Undoubtedly, you all have countless memories of her and your father that will bring you smiles for many days and years to come.

Thank you for sharing the memorial service. It brought tears to my eyes.

*Fondly,
Judy Warfield Price*
