

Mary C. Wharton

July 11, 1922 - February 6, 2018

Mary C. Wharton of Easton, MD, formerly of Ridgely, MD, died on Tuesday, February 6, 2018. She was 95 at the time of her death.

Born July 11, 1922, near Ridgely, she was the daughter of the late, Harry G. and M. Amanda Zeigler Crouse. She was a graduate of Ridgely High School, Class of 1939, where she had earned the Citizenship Award. On December 30, 1939, she married Otis H. Wharton, and they made their home in Ridgely until moving to New Jersey in 1959, later returning to retire in Ridgely and Easton, MD.

Mrs. Wharton was primarily a homemaker but excelled in anything she attempted to do, which included sewing, gardening, upholstering, knitting, canning, refinishing antiques, and stenciling.

In addition to her parents and husband, she is pre-deceased by all her siblings, sister, Edna Shearer; brothers, Glenn Crouse, Harry Crouse, Jr., Russell Crouse, Frank Crouse and Paul Crouse. She is survived by two sons, Herman Wharton (Ginny) and Wayne Wharton (Kay) all of Nottingham, PA, a daughter, Ruth Ann Smith of Easton; six grandchildren, Heidi Smith of Camden, DE, Shawn Sparks of Easton, MD, Jeffrey Wharton and John Wharton, both of Philadelphia, PA, Zachary Wharton and Alex Wharton, both of Nottingham, PA; 10 great-grandchildren; and one great-great grandson.

Burial will be private and at the convenience of the family.

A Celebration of Life will be held at the Jensen's Hyde Park Clubhouse in Easton on Saturday, April 28, from 1 – 3 p.m.

Memorial donations may be made to Ridgely Historical Society, Ridgely, MD.

In honor of our loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother, she would love for each of you to do a random act of kindness for someone.
