“ I just now learned of Maryann's death...I am so sorry. I missed her greatly when I did not see her these past few years....she was the smartest dresser ever, had absolutely gorgeous hair and greeted everyone everywhere with her smile. She was devoted to her husband and family, could strike up a conversation with anyone anywhere and never let on if she was having a bad day. Heaven has gained a bright light with this lady.

“ My husband and I are so sorry for your loss. Maryann put God, her family and her Country first. Her joy in life is exhibited by the smile in this picture. You all can be proud and rejoice in the beautiful person she was both inside and out.

She was so much fun to be around. All of us got to know all of the family through the stories and current reports we received from her, We hope you get hope and consolation from the life she led.

She will not be forgotten and we will all get to see her again.
