

Mary A. Rada Harrington

July 12, 1925 - February 19, 2010

Mary Adelaide Rada on February 19, 2010 went home to her Lord and Savior to reside in her Father's House following a long courageous battle with Alzheimer's.

Mary was born in Queenstown on July 12, 1925 to Lillie Eleanor and Clinton B. Baker. She was a 1943 graduate of Centreville High School and assisted her husband, William in his Contracting business and enjoyed being a substitute school teacher. Upon the death of her husband, William she worked for Hess Apparel and Shearer The Jeweler for 12 years. Her charisma and charm made her successful in sales.

Having a passion for fine clothing and design she modeled for Beecham's and The Tidewater Inn in Easton into her 70's. Having a desire to work hard for her Savior Jesus Christ, Mary was involved in many Lady Ministries-Choir and Sunday school teaching, first in Calvary Methodist Church in Queenstown, Wye Mills United Methodist Church and the Easton Church of the Nazarene. Always ready to witness and share the Gospel.

Those left to cherish her memory are three sons, William Rada, Jr. of Cambridge, Denny Rada and his wife, Ann of Wye Mills and Donnie Rada and his wife, Tereasa of Trappe; three daughters, Linda Saubier of Colora, Faye Hickman of Chester and Sherry Smith and her husband, David of Church Hill; sisters, Loraine Haberman and June Collier of Queenstown; 21 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 35 years, William Rada, Sr. She was also preceded in death by brothers, Bernard and Teddy Baker; and sisters, Betty Thompson and Violet Barsotti.

A Funeral Service will be held at the Easton Church of God on Wednesday, February 24, 2010 at 12 Noon where friends may call from 10 – 12. Officiating the service will be Rev. John Cahall and Pastor Denny Rada.

Private burial will take place at Woodlawn Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made in her memory to Easton Church of God, Lady's Ministry, 1009 N. Washington St., Easton, MD 21601.

“ Some of my foundest memories are of Bill and Adelaide and the children. I remember the day that Donnie was born. I was just a teenager but I was so happy that he was born on not only June's birthday but mine also. I can still hear her laugh and see her smiling face. God truly has another angel to join his choir. May God bless each of you and know that she was truly loved.##imported-begin##Mary E. Holden##imported-end##

“ We count it a priviledge to be Mr. Bill's and Mrs. Adelaide's Wye Mills neighbor for many years, I will always remember her wave and sweet smile when I would come home. My memory of her is always seeing her shaking her mop or shaking a rug, what a immaculate home she kept. What a beautiful woman she was not only on the outside but inside as well! To know she is with her beloved Saviour can be a comfort to her family. Our prayers are with her family...Gary and Linda Cecil##imported-begin##Gary and Linda Cecil##imported-end##

“ She was without a doubt one of the sweetest, most loving persons it has ever been my pleasure to know. And even though with the minor exception of including her (legal) last name, her family has seen fit to excoriate any mention of the over twenty years of marriage she shared with our Father, John E. Harrington Sr., she is also loved, and survived by my brother John E. Harrington, by myself and by our families as well. Her memory shall remain a comfort to me and to all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving her. Adelaide, you were a true treasure. As the old song says, "I'll see you when I get home, in the sweet by and by, we'll walk along those golden streets, with Jesus by our side....." With our Love, Mike, Julie, Mandy, Willie and our children & grandchildren##imported-begin##Reverend Michael W. Harrington##imported-end##

“ To Ms. Adelaide's family: Our deepest sympathy and prayers are with you in the loss of a wonderful lady. Heaven surely has another angel. What an inspiration she was to many and her appearance was always number one. We know she has had a rough few years and God saw it was time for her to be with him. May God give you strength to face each new day with love and peace. Thinking of you. Gene and Lynda Palmatary, 221 Hope Road, Centreville, Md.##imported-begin##Lynda H. Palmatary##imported-end##
