

Mary Bothwell Lucas

May 3, 2005

Mary Bothwell Lucas, longtime resident of Annapolis Roads, passed away on May 3, 2005 in Easton, MD.

Born in Miami, FL on July 15, 1923, she was the daughter of the late Dr. Harper and Eunice Bothwell. Mary attended the University of Florida and then married the love of her life, Robert E. "Doc" Lucas, an Air Force Pilot and jazz musician. Together for fifty-six years, they had two sons, Christopher and his wife Jen, and Evan and his wife Debra. They traveled the World and experienced life to the fullest. An avid artist, she loved all forms of art and theatre. Living on Lake Ogleton, Mary sold real estate in the Annapolis area for many years, wrote many articles for the Key School on its student activities, volunteered for the Annapolis Hospice program, comforting terminally ill children, and was always willing to go anywhere and do anything to help her children and family. As Mary had 5 brothers and sisters, and Doc had 11, her family circle became quite large over the years, and Mary deeply loved them all.

After her husband passed away in 1992, Mary worked with the B-26 Historical Society for 10 years answering queries from family and friends of those who had served in World War II, developing many close relationships all over the nation. Mary was an elegant, kind compassionate southern lady in every respect, with a wry sense of humor.

In addition to her children, Mrs. Lucas is survived by her sister Evelyn Burns, and brother David Bothwell, both of Atlanta. Mary was especially devoted to her two grandchildren, Christopher Bothwell Lucas of Bingen, Germany and Robert Nash Lucas of Salt Lake City, UT. She touched many lives and left many better than she found them. We are all richer for having known and been loved by her, and we owe Evan and Debra special gratitude for their constant devotion to her care in her last years.

Friends are invited to help celebrate her life and memory at an open house at 18 Fleet St. in Annapolis on Saturday, May 7, 2005 from 2 to 4 PM.

Arrangements by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, MD.
