“ Mary Helen was a class act. She was passionately loyal to her many affiliations and causes. We will remember her especially for: the love and pride she had as a descendant of Laura and Edward Callahan, which she demonstrated by hosting many memorable "Callahan Cousin Parties;" her compassion and devotion towards "All Creatures Great and Small;" and her enthusiasm for the "Talbot County Life." “ Aunt Mary Helen was the mother I try to emulate. She was always there for her kids - loving, but not a push-over. I absolutely adored going to visit her and her family. There was always so much love in that home. Aunt Mary Helen gave me my first pair of earrings, small "gold" hoops which I treasured for years (they were stolen from a house break-in when I lived in San Juan, Puerto Rico). Aunt Mary Helen was totally accepting of my family and me. She was an inspiration to me and I will miss her very much. I love you, Aunt Mary Helen!!!##imported-begin##Anne Aguilera##imported-end##
