“ *Curtie , Dell and family
Tink had lots of funny stories of Mary Jean standing her ground against the telephone guys in Kennedyville. She was still a softie when it came to little children.
What a great personality she had and will be missed by lots of friends.
We are thinking of you.##imported-begin##Tink and Beverly

“ *To the Bishop Family: My deepest prayers and thoughts in the loss of Mary Jean. We had many good times at the old Centreville High School. I graduated in 1966, but our classes were close and they were the good old days. My prayers are with you at this time and may her memories live on in your hearts forever.
