“ Mr Tom and family, I am so sorry to hear about Miss Mary.

*Tom, my heart goes out to you and all of her family.
It has been many years since I have seen you and Mary. But still remember the summers (50's) and the weekends I visited while I was stationed in DC and Philly, when I would visit my Sweetest sister and Her great husband,, Waring.*

May God be will you.

“ So many great memories.
Aunt Mary always greeted me with: "Hello little one". A funny vision.
(She just told me last week that she brought me home from the hospital 62 years ago. Maybe thats where it came from!)
4th of July in Pasadena was always one of the very best days of the year.
Crazy pinochle on the porch. 9 players and one deck! Laughs and more laughs.
Best Christmas cookies ever. My wife begged for them.
Always a smile and full of love.
And a great family!
She will be missed but always remembered with happiness.
