

Mary Rosalind Wolf

June 28, 2004

Mary Rosalind Wolf of Easton, MD died on Monday, June 28, 2004 at Memorial Hospital at Easton. She was 95.

Born May 19, 1909 in Loudonville, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Harry E. and Lottie Albertha Smith Zimmerman. After graduating from Loudonville High School in 1927, she worked as a secretary in local agricultural businesses and played the piano for silent movies at the local theater. On April 6, 1936, she married C. Earl Wolf, her high school sweetheart, and they settled in New Martinsville, West Virginia, where he spent most of his career with PPG Industries. Since the death of Mr. Wolf in 1999 she has resided at the Londonderry Retirement Community in Easton.

As a member of First United Methodist Church in New Martinsville, she served the church in many capacities. Active in community affairs, she served on the founding committee for the New Martinsville Public Library and played the piano for many youth choirs over the years.

Mrs. Wolf is survived by two sons, Jack E. Wolf of Fayetteville, NY and William E. Wolf of Chesapeake City, MD; five grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 10, 2004 at 1:00 PM at Londonderry Retirement Community, Easton, MD.

Interment with her late husband will be at New Martinsville, West Virginia at a later date.

Contributions in her memory may be made to First United Methodist Church, 400 Main Street, New Martinsville, West Virginia 26155.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Rosalind Wolf

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Mary Rosalind Wolf

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Mary Rosalind Wolf

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM