“ Kevin,
I know it hard to express your feelings as it is far to early. You are a wonderful man, husband, father, and son. You are your fathers footprint as your your children will be yours. I never had the chance to meet your dad but I can say looking at the fine person you are only a great man could have been involved in your upbringing. I pray when Maurice entered the light my Dad and brother where there to offer a hand in helping him find his way. They too were great people in my life and also there to help someone. Stay strong and be a good listener for Doris, she will need you to help her grow in this new path life is taking her. Big hugs!##imported-begin##Angela D. Frantom##imported-end##

“ Sherry & Family:
We were so sorry to hear of Scotty's passing and want you to know that our thoughts and prayers are with you now. I'm so grateful for the recent time I spent in your home with Scotty. I wanted him to know how much I admired him, not only as a professional colleague, but also as a great friend and family man. I'll always remember the fun time at our lunch outings (which had to be scheduled around his grandpa duties) and the joy he expressed about being a grandparent. He will always be one of the good guys.

“ Dear Mrs. Scott,

I am writing to express my sadness on learning of Scotty's recent death. We were colleagues at Prince George's for many years. What I most remember about Scotty is how pleasant and helpful he was all the time. I also always found it easy to talk with him.

I know you and your family will miss him very much. I hope all of you can find comfort in the good times you shared with him over the years.

Please accept my deepest sympathy.
