“ Kim, Sim, Jim and Tim, I am so very sorry for your loss! Your Mom was a wonderful woman, but I don't need to tell you all that! She was loved by everyone who's lives she touched, including me and I am very happy to have known her. I pray you are able to find comfort in knowing she is resting in her Eternal home with your Dad and once again everything is beautiful for them!

“ I first met Maxine when I dated her son, Jim. She was very stern but beneath that exterior was a big heart. She would do anything for you when you ask. She later became my mother in law for 34 years. She loved her family in her own way. I was honored to have her as my boss at Upper Shore Mental Health Hospital in Chesterton as my first job as an LPN. Our patients often were unruly but they too respected and listened to her. Immediately calm down without any medicine. Many thought I would receive more privileges being married to her son. She was fair to all of us that work under her helm. I learned a lot from her... later through her expertise and how she managed our patients was able to instill that in my career as a nurse.

We lived in Georgia, took all our vacations by spending them with her and Don. We always knew that a pineapple upside down cake would be just coming out of the oven for Jim Jr, salty donuts (powered donuts) for Kristen. Pimento spread for Jim Sr and a Big jar olives. Since it was around my birthday when we visited, she would invite people I knew and order steam crabs and we would have a cookout.

Many memories to speak of. We had a good relationship, being a nurses and of course Our Family.

I spoke to Maxine a week before Christmas, she assured me that she had made peace with Gid and was ready to meet her Savior. I know she is in my future.

Praying for the family. Know that God is close to the broken hearted.. He will never leave you or forsake you!

Maxine was one of the best nurses I ever work with, she taught me a lot about people. I took care of Mr. Stewart in his later years and was able to spend more time with Mrs. and Mr. Stewart. They were both great people.
