“ We were very saddened to hear of Greg's passing. Walt remembers his wit and good nature from many years ago in Spanish class at SPHS. Our deepest sympathy to every member of his family for surely if he made such an impression on a teacher after all these years, his impact on those he loved is immensely greater. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all.

“ Dr. Ferguson was such a good friend to Cat Rescue of Maryland, Inc. We made quarterly trips to Annapolis with all our permanent fosters with heart murmurs. Dr. Ferguson could never do enough for us. He was always thinking of more ways he could help out. He also treated my own cats and I trusted him completely. I am honestly in shock right now. He will be sorely missed. Maryanne Dubbs, President, Cat Rescue of Maryland, Inc.

“ From Tie dyes to Ties I'm so lucky to have known and worked with Greg for so many years. He was truly one of the kindest and dearest of men. Thank you Greg for lighting up every room you walked into and for bringing joy into so many lives. You were a tremendous father and husband. So many times you would tell me that I needed to come and sweep Christy away and take her out for a night. You always thought of everyone else. Thank you my friend, you will be missed. I only knew him for 2 years but he made an impression on me during a difficult period in my life. My condolences to his family including those in his veterinary family. It is not often you are privileged to work with someone that makes you want to be at the office because you knew he would find a way to make it a better day.*

“ Greg was an amazing giving person who reached out to make you feel accepted and appreciated, he kept you smiling & laughing. His love for his beautiful wife and 3 children was rich and apparent. He embraced all children with such kindness and enthusiasm, including mine, it was infectious. The gifts of kindness he gave are forever and growing and hopefully the world will be filled with more kind joyful thoughtful people like him.

“ I worked in the same office as Fergie for four years and I knew that when I would come to work in the morning and see him that he was sure to be a bright spot in my day. He was so full of life and laughter and plainly just one of the nicest people I've ever met. I'll always remember him walking through the halls singing or passing me with his contagious smile or having something funny to say. My heart breaks for all of those who were close to him especially his wife and children. I feel lucky to have known Fergie for the short time that I did. I'll never forget him. We love you Fergie...

“ My tribute to Greg is to try to be a little more like him. I don't think there was a person at our hospital that he didn't talk to. He made a connection with you and then always found something to chat about. It's unthinkable that someone so full of life could be gone so suddenly, but how wonderful would it be if we all incorporated a little bit of Greg into our own lives. Laugh a little more ... have a conversation with someone you don't usually talk to ... be a little goofy ... even let your eyebrows get crazy. Recently, Greg commented on how spiky my hair was. He asked me if I'd rather be Sid Vicious or Johnny Rotten. I said Sid Vicious and we both agreed that it was better to go out in a blaze of glory. Well, my friend, you definitely went out in a blaze of glory. Everyone who met you loved you. You will live on in our hearts.

“ My deepest sympathies to Greg's entire family... Greg was such a well-respected colleague, invaluable resource, jovial and welcoming personality, and a cornerstone of any vet's practice in the greater Annapolis area--his passing leaves a void within all of us. When I turn and look at my cat (who was diagnosed with cancer more than 3 years ago and had a heart beat at the time that sounded more like a drunk toddler on a drum set!), I know that he's outlived his 15 month prognosis in large part due to Greg. So although Greg isn't with us physically now, he's here in hundreds of appreciative homes all over Maryland.
Thanks Greg--we'll miss you.

*As rising sophomores in veterinary school at Va. Tech, two classmates and I needed a roommate from the incoming freshman class for our four bedroom house. We were not sure what to expect when Greg agreed to live with us having never met him. Within 15 minutes of his arrival we were playing horseshoes, drinking good microbrew beer, and listening to the Grateful Dead. It was the beginning of a good friendship that I am sorry to have let slip over time. I will miss you Greg, and my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family,

“ I have been talking to and referring cases to Greg for over 10 years, and I always recommended him for my cardiac patients. I knew they were in good hands, and the clients always loved him (they always told me so!). Even though we both grew up here in Severna Park, I only this year finally met him, and I can see why he was so appreciated-he was charming, smart, down to earth, and had a great sense of humor, all the while truly caring about his patients. The world has lost a great veterinary cardiologist and all around great person, and I give my condolences to all of his family and friends.

“ Greg was a gifted veterinarian and will be dearly missed by his clients, colleagues, friends and family. Greg easily won over clients with his knowledge, compassion and down to earth demeanor and had a way of lighting up a room with his wit and smile. He will be fondly remembered as a friend, colleague and cardiologist to my own pets. I will greatly miss our case discussions and his James Harriot-like humor.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Ferguson family at this difficult time.

“ Words cannot even begin to convey the sadness and loss in my heart for such an amazing person and doctor...Greg touched so many peoples' lives in so many ways....in the years I had the privilege to work with him, I can't ever recall him having a "down" day.....always upbeat, positive, goofy and an all around great person to be around....he will be missed tremendously and my heart and thoughts are with his family

Greg was a wonderful person. I used to work in the same building as he did and I never saw him without a smile on his face. He was always laughing and joking with those around him. He took care of several of my personal pets. The veterinary world has lost an awesome vet. My thoughts and prayers are going out to his family who are suffering such a profound loss, especially his children.

“ Although I had lost touch with Greg over the years since SPHS, his name and positive influence has always stuck with me. He was someone who was always willing to be there and do anything for anyone. It is nice to read that his later years had the same positive influence on people. I would like to send out my best to his family.
