“ To the McNeal Family,
I'm sorry to hear of your loss, Megan is in a better place. Whoever said that she earned her "Angel Wings" said it right. I can feel your pain, I lost my niece Marci of Brain Cancer back in May of 2005, like Megan she was only 14 years old. My thoughts and prayers go out to each and everyone of you. Stay strong and hold on to your memories. Reflect to them often, as many of you will have Smiles on your faces and some might bring tears to your eyes. Take one day at a time and you will find strength to get you through this. May God Bless you!

Sincerely,
Nancy Cantville##imported-begin##Nancy Cantville##imported-end##

“ To the McNeal Family: We do not know you personally, but have read so much about your wonderful daughter and wanted you to know what our prayers, thoughts and deepest sympathy is with your entire family. The admiration that others had for her is surely overwhelming and God has another angel by his side. Remember the good times and the wonderful memories you have of her. God will take your hand and guide you in the right direction. God Bless each one of you. Gene and Lynda Palmatary, 221 Hope Road, Centreville, Md.##imported-begin##Lynda Palmatary##imported-end##

“ McNeal Family- I do not know you, but wanted to pass along my deepest sympathy to you. Your family is admired for the strength, courage, and devotion you have demonstrated. You truly define what family is all about! From what I have read, your daughter will be missed by many, but in her short life, made many, many memories for you to cherish forever.
