

Melanie Ann Hallowell

June 5, 1967 - October 17, 2020

Melanie Ann Hallowell passed away suddenly in the early morning hours of October 17, 2020.

Melanie was born June 5, 1967. She was the daughter of Donna Sherwood and Sandy Medford, both of Stevensville, MD. She graduated from South River High School in Edgewater, MD in 1985.

Melanie loved to read and her cat Sybil.

She is survived by her parents Donna (Rob) Sherwood and Sandy Medford of Stevensville, MD; her sister Shannan (Brett) Brinkley of Salisbury, MD; an aunt Ruthann Hall of Shadyside, MD; an uncle John W (sim) Phelps of Hookset, NH; a niece; two nephews; and several cousins. She is also survived by her significant other, Wayne Atkins, of Pasadena, MD.

Our broken hearts will forever feel the loss and emptiness of her absence.

A private memorial service will be held.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to your favorite charity.

“ Mel loved her family and wanted to be part of family things. She loved going to Phelps family reunions with her Aunt Ruth. They also like to travel together, they we're best friends. My wife, Sim, daughter Kristen and myself will miss Mel terribly. She was taken before her time was up but God must have needed her. Our love for Mel will be eternal and she will not be forgotten.

God Bless you Melanie Ann
