“ I still can't believe you're gone bro. I remember when we were in NJROTC together and me, Chris Hope, and you used to get into trouble on our late nights riding back roads together. You will always be a brother to me. You were there for me when I went thru break ups and the hardships bro and I'll never find another friend like you cause you can't be replaced. I hope to see you one day on those golden streets in that golden palace I know you're in right now and I know you're up there being ur crazy self lol. I love you bro and we'll meet again. (looks up at the sky, blows a kiss and says goodbye for now)

“ I was there the day you were born. You were such a tiny little peanut. I remember thinking what a miracle it was just for you to be in this world. And your parents were oh so proud and they nurtured and protected you and you grew to be such a strong, loving wonderful human being.

I am happy that your suffering was brief and that if you had to be taken from us that you were taken quickly. And even in death you were thinking of others and because of you others will have a chance to live a better life.

You will be missed but never forgotten. We will laugh and tell stories about all of the good times we shared and we will see you every time we look into the eyes of your children.

Keeping you forever in my heart.
