“ My heart is broken for my Brother and Sister in Law, Tracy and Mike... I know the pain of losing a child thank God they had their son for 18 yrs... God knew it was time for him to come home.. They took wonderful care of him and he knew he was loved by our while Family.. He will be missed so very much, especially by his parents, but I am praying that he is running with the Angels, playing football and doing the things he was unable to do here on earth.. God rest Mikey's soul and hold him in yours arms so very tight...

“ One of the pictures is of the boys all dressed up sitting on a couch. I was there that day and at that time I was on a cane. Mikey kept looking at the cane and finally asked if he could have it. He walked around with the cane- or I should say he strutted. Eventually he returned and started eyeing my hat! We had a very serious discussion about "Hat Hair" and he realized I was not parting with my hat. Love, Cousin Barb

“ Tracy, Mike and Brandon,
There are no words that can express what you must be feeling right now. Just know that you were the best parents and the best brother Mikey could have had. You must be very special to be given such a special, beautiful child. He is now free from pain; even though yours has increased. I will continue to keep all of you in our thoughts and prayers. 18 years is just not long enough to hold a child. Love,
Wilma Miller
