

Michael Louis Malkus

December 20, 1965 - March 21, 2013

Michael Louis Malkus, of St. Michaels, MD, died on March 21, 2013, as a result of a house fire. He was 47.

Born December 20, 1965, in Williamantic, CT, he was the son of Mary V. Walton Malkus, of Bozman, MD, and the late Louis A. Malkus. He was raised in Storrs, CT, where he graduated from E.O. Smith High School. He attended the University of Connecticut.

Michael spent many years on the Eastern Shore developing his business, St. Michaels Painters. He was a hard worker and a caring man with a kind heart. He loved the "Shore" and his family.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, are a brother, Andrew Malkus and his wife, Cynthia, of Portland, OR; a sister, Mary Lundstrom and her husband, Jarred, of Santa Rosa, CA; three nieces, Anamae and Molly Lundstrom and Andie Malkus; as well as several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Michael had hoped one day to work with and help recovering addicts. Therefore, in his memory, donations may be made to help with scholarships for residence and support at Mid-Shore Fresh Start. There are many in need who could not otherwise afford it. If you wish to make a donation in his name, please send it to: Mid-Shore Fresh Start, PO Box 163, Easton, MD 21601

Attn: Tori Brummell, Director. (www.midshorefreshstart.org)

Services for Michael will be private.

Dear Molly
I remember Michael for his not stop positive personality and attitude in spite of his stumbles on his path through life. The tragedy of his departure are his dreams unfulfilled but from his comments to me he loved and respected his family. Strength and peace to you and to those around you. Love Leo and Elizabeth
