“ Goodbye Mike
Even though I haven't seen you since our 25th reunion, I thought of you often and your name came up often at our many reunions. I will miss your monthly or bi-weekly email of your bits of wisdom some good and some not so good. The jokes weren't bad either. We will miss you and I hope you are enjoying that big OCEAN from above. Will miss you Mike:

Goodbye Friend,

A very dear friend that I will miss very much. Worked with Mike for many years and always found him very dedicated to the highly important mission of the Agency.

Exchanged lots of emails and occasionally had long conversations on the phone. Will miss his wisdom and very distinct voice.

For Marie and family, I hope the healing from this loss will be softened by the realization that he had many friends and his work contributions to the Agency were significant although he was never able to share them.
