“ *My dear Brother Hardway, Brother you will be sorely missed. All the times and years we've spent together, we always have had each others backs. Now I know I have my back covered when I reach the other side.
We will ride again one day soon.*

*Love and Respect always,

“ *My Dearest Michael, I have loved you for so long now. Met you in 1972, and had the opportunity of sharing the last few years of your life with you. THANK You for that. Thanks for listening to me through my Moms sickness, never missing a day, and always being, most of all, my friend, my BEST Friend, someone I could ALWAYS count on, someone who cared about ME and was always on the other end of the phone asking if I was ok. Too me....I will carry you in my heart of hearts, till the day we meet again friend. I will always remember the good times, for we had many and many. Rest now, Michael, rest, we will see each other again soon. One of your favorite sayings was "LIFE IS TOO SHORT." And you are so right.
Forever I will carry you in my heart and soul!###imported-

“ Dee-Dee and Kevin I am so sorry for your loss. I am happy for the six years Michael and I shared, though there were some tough times. I am grateful that he contacted me and we made amends before his passing. It has given me some peace and closure. Going through the cards and pictures we shared last night, I had forgotten how close we had been. He will always hold a special place in my heart.###imported-begin##Michelle "Mickey" Conaway###imported-end##
