

Michael Patrick McCarthy

October 7, 2002

Michael P. McCarthy, 50, a self-employed builder and home-renovator in Maryland and Washington, D.C, died of cancer October 7 at his home in Stevensville.

Mr. McCarthy was born in Bethesda, Maryland and graduated from St. John's College High School in Washington, D.C. Over the last decade, he spent several months each year as a fly-fishing guide for the Granmorangie Lodge on the Delaware River in Starlight, PA and Old Boetcher Lodge in Walden, CO. He also worked as a commercial rod and reel offshore fisherman throughout the Eastern Seaboard. Mr. McCarthy, an avid hunter, also built custom furniture and hand-carved decoys.

Mr. McCarthy is survived by his daughter, Courtney Erin Logan McCarthy, a student at Lynchburg College; his mother, Helen Kalas McCarthy and his brother, Daniel J. McCarthy, both of Stevensville.

A gathering for family and friends will be held at the home of Ian Day and Lucinda Ewell at 100 Wallace Manor Rd. in Edgewater, MD on Saturday October 12, at 5:00 PM.

Arrangements were provided by Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Chester, MD.

Tribute Wall

“ Michael Patrick McCarthy

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Michael Patrick McCarthy

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Michael Patrick McCarthy

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM