

Milan Kana

August 7, 1920 - May 17, 2013

Milan Kana, age 92, passed away on May 17, 2013. Born August 7, 1920, Milan was a resident of Heartfields of Easton for the past 2 years.

Born and raised in Yonkers, NY, Milan and his twin brother, Alfred, were the youngest of four children of Suzanna and Jan Kana. Milan served in France as part of the World War II effort. When he returned he married his love, Nancy Ellen Austin, and obtained his degree from New York University. After one year in Vermont, he and Nancy moved to Bellport (Long Island), NY, where they resided for 50 years.

Milan had a 25-year career with Pitney Bowes before 'retiring' to work alongside Nancy at Bellport's Gateway Playhouse for 20 years where he was the resident photographer and bar manager. During those years, he and Nancy greatly enjoyed traveling to Germany, where they had many special friends. They moved to Easton in 2003.

Predeceased by his parents, sisters, and Nancy, his wife of 63 years, Milan is survived by his brother, Alfred (Gloria); his sons, Timothy (Julie Lumpkin) of Columbia, SC, Todd (Patricia Glibert) of Easton, MD, and Titus (Jayne Cunniff) of Patchogue, NY; grandchildren, Chris (Andrea Teal), Nancy (Andrew Imbeau), William, Kathryn (Zander Parker), Austin, Patrick, and Betsy; and great-grandchildren, Langston and Baldwin. He is also survived by special friends, John and Sallie Wadsworth of VT and Stephanie Naggl of Germany.

The family wishes to thank the staff of Heartfields and Talbot Hospice for their dedicated care.
