

Mildred Alma Kronau

January 25, 2000

Mrs. Mildred Alma Kronau, of Royal Swan Farm, Still Pond, MD, died on January 25, 2000, at a convalescent facility in Kennedyville, MD, where she had been residing since March of 1999.

She was the daughter of the late Alma Joyce Emmart Davis and Thomas Emmart. Her death at 92 years was caused by heart failure. She was born in Baltimore, MD, and graduated from Eastern High School.

She was predeceased in 1995 by her husband of 68 years, John L. Kronau, former chairman of the Maryland Port Authority. They lived most of their lives in Baltimore. For many years, they divided their time between their principal residence there and their property at Royal Swan Farm in Still Pond, MD, to which they moved permanently in 1985.

Mrs. Kronau loved cooking and needlework, both of which she had widely acknowledged talents. Along with these hobbies, she was an accomplished bridge player, being a member of several clubs in Baltimore. She was also a devoted birdwatcher and naturalist along with her husband, who was a well-known hunter of Easter Shore waterfowl.

Their only child, Mary Kronau Quarstein, and her husband, Dr. Vernon A. Quarstein, Col. USA (RET) live in Hampton, VA. Mrs. Kronau is also survived by three grandchildren with whom she had a very close and loving relationship, Pamela Q. Gumpert & her husband Paul Gumpert of Still Pond, MD, Marianne Q. Riding & her husband Joseph B. Riding of Newark, DE, and John V. Quarstein & his wife Martha J. Quarstein of Newport News, VA; his son, her great-grandson, John Moran Quarstein.

Memorial Services will be held for family and friends on Sunday, February 20, at 1 p.m. in the Shrewsbury Episcopal Church near Kennedyville, MD.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the Shrewsbury Parish Church, PO Box 187, Kennedyville, MD 21645.
