

Mildred Rose Kingsbury

March 20, 1928 - November 14, 2025

Polly Kingsbury was born March 20, 1928, in Baltimore Maryland as Mildred Rose Thomas to William and Ann Elizabeth.. As a child and teenager, she shared her beautiful singing talents with several choirs including Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church, Baltimore Fellowship Choir and with several theater groups including Children's Experimental Theatre and The Vagabonds. It was during this time that she was reunited with her childhood friend and love of her life, Robert (Bob) Kingsbury and they married on June 14, 1948. Together they happily raised a family of four sons, Robert Jr, William, Barry, Jeffrey and daughter, Joanne. While Bob grew his successful medical practice, Polly was an Antique Dealer and Collector for many years and was active with Church activities, and hospitality shops at the local hospital. Polly and Bob retired to Millington Maryland, where they were surrounded by friends and family including their nephew, Mark whom they consider their sixth child. Polly leaves behind grieving friends and family, including her daughters-in-law, Jayne, Paige, Tami and Debbie, son-in-law Francis (Frank), grandchildren Kyle, Patrick, Lucy, Zachary, Jackelyn, Lona Sue and Kelly and several great grandchildren. Polly rejoices to be reunited with friends and family who have gone before her in Heaven, including her wonderful husband, her parents, sister Christine, brother-in-law Arthur, nephew David, granddaughter Audra, grandson Barry Jr and a much beloved son, Robert Jr.
