

Mildred McDanolds

November 10, 2005

Mildred Culver McDanolds of Still Pond, Maryland, died Thursday, November 10, 2005 at Chester River Manor in Chestertown, Maryland. She was 90.

Born September 4, 1915 in New Jersey, she was the daughter of the late, Clarence and Cora Lott Culver. Mrs. McDanolds and her husband, William took great pride in raising and showing registered Holstein cattle in New Jersey. In 1963 they moved their dairy herd to Kent County, Maryland. Mrs. McDanolds also worked as a teller in the Chestertown Bank for several years.

She was a member of the Cadwalader of Kent Chapter of the Questers and a member of Shrewsbury Episcopal Church. She enjoyed caring for her large iris flower garden and created many beautiful oval braided rugs, which have become family heirlooms.

Mrs. McDanolds is survived by one son, William R. McDanolds II and wife, Barbara of Still Pond, Maryland; one daughter, Mary M. Backus and husband, John of Denville, New Jersey; two brothers, C. Burton Culver and Robert Lamar Culver, both of Branchville, New Jersey; six grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. She was pre-deceased by her husband.

A visitation will be held Monday, November 14, 2005 from 10-12 Noon at the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, 130 Speer Rd.,

Chestertown, Maryland. Following the visitation a service will be held at 12:30 p.m. at Shrewsbury Episcopal Church in Kennedyville, Maryland.

Interment will be held in Shrewsbury Cemetery following the service.

In lieu of flowers contributions can be sent to Shrewsbury Episcopal Church, P.O. Box 187, Kennedyville, Maryland 21645.
