“ I just wanted to give my deepest sympathy to the Wessel family. I know there's nothing I can say or do to take the hurt & pain away at a time such as this; hopefully these scriptures from the Bible will show some comfort. Faithful Job asked the question in Job 14:14 " If a man die shall he live again". The question Job asked is one that many of us ask. Well you will be pleased to know that the Bible makes the promise found in Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine—they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]. Also in the near future Revelations 21:3, 4 will be fulfilled, with that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning or outcry nor is pain anymore. The former things have passed away.”

I hope these scripture brought some kind of comfort to your family and also remember to "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you found at Psalms 55:22##imported-begin##Tara Anderson-Fulton##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear about your loss. My sincerest condolences to the Wessel family and friends. I know how difficult it is to lose someone close to you and I hope the words of the resurrection found at John 5:28,29 can bring you some comfort.##imported-begin##Charles##imported-end##
