“ Mildred was a wonderful Sister. I always enjoyed being with her and doing whatever. I remember a story about the time she got a bottle of homewine from us. She put it in the pantry and a while later, the top blew off and sprayed wine all over the ceiling. Bro. Ireland said Mildred was in there with her head laid back trying to catch the wine in her mouth as it came down from the ceiling. Of course she always said that wasn't the truth. But we shared many a laugh over that one. Of course I will remember the most, her fine example of how to be a good Christian, serving Jehovah completely.

I would like her family to please accept my sympathy.

“ We have nothing but fond and happy memories of Miss Mildred and Mr. Charles. They opened their home to us for many years for the weekly Book Study for which we are grateful. Their marriage and their love for Jehovah was something to be admired and respected. We look forward to seeing them both in the Resurrection.

Much love to her family - Miss Mildred will be sadly missed.
