

Milton Holmes

April 13, 1939 - April 8, 2008

Milton Colvin Holmes, "Milt", passed away on Tuesday, April 8, 2008 at Anne Arundel Medical Center surrounded by his loving family. He was 68 years old.

Born on April 13, 1939 to the late Fredric Holmes and Katherine Spinney in Pittsfield, MA, Milt graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Biology. He worked as an entomologist for the USDA for 29 years. He lived in several states before moving to Maryland in 1986. In 1993, he made Queenstown his home with his wife Kathryn.

Milt loved the outdoors, he enjoyed gardening, ice fishing every April in Michigan, hunting, camping, and crabbing on his boat, "Wye's Acre." He was an avid reader of Tom Clancy spy novels. The loves of his life were his grandchildren and his family.

He is survived by his wife, Kathryn Holmes of Queenstown, MD; 3 daughters, Kim Narvesen of Queenstown, MD; Karen Ratzow of Queenstown, MD; Cassie Tuller of Tampa, FL; son, Zac Holmes of Tampa, FL; six grandchildren, Nick Narvesen, Erik Narvesen, Kayla Narvesen, Ryan Ratzow, Tyler Ratzow, and Anna Tuller; brother, Curtis Holmes of Elkhart, Indiana.

Services will be held privately. Memorial contributions may be made to Johns Hopkins University, in the memo section of the check: NABTT CNS
