“ It is hard to believe that 15 years have passed since my Mom's untimely death. It seems like yesterday we were laughing at an off-color joke. Mom you are with me in spirit always. I miss the smell of your Chanel No. 5 and your multitude of talents. You taught me that in life anything is possible. You also constantly reminded me that it is okay to shoot for the stars and reach the tree tops. You were both a Mom and Dad to me and I hope I continue to carry on your values, love, dignity and extraordinary talents. 58 years young when you left.... I have a feeling that you are on a beautiful beach enjoying yourself! Today I will paint just for you. Thank you for that gift too. In addition, your sensitivity and divine inspiration, your eye, your design sensibility your touch, artistic talent and tremendous way with people live on and will always help me to express freshness, spirit and grace. My heart will always beat with yours. May your spirit always soar..... Love, Jennifer

“ *This is a second attempt to honor my mother's memories.... It is hard to believe that 15 years have passed since my Mom's untimely death. It seems like yesterday that were just laughing at an off-color joke!!! Mom, you are with me in spirit always. I still miss the smell of your Chanel No. 5 and your multitude of talents. You taught me that in life anything is possible. You also constantly reminded me that it is okay to shoot for the stars and only reach the tree-tops! You were both a mom and a dad to me and I hope I continue to carry on your values, love, compassion, dignity and extraordinary talents. 58 years young you were when you left....I have a feeling that you are on a beautiful beach enjoying yourself. “ This is Jennifer Pierce, Molly's only child. I miss her so, found lots of photos, sweet yet painful. I will never ever forget that moment in time on June 17th at 1:20 pm 2002 ... they say they wait, she did, and although horrific - a bleed out, I was with her and my soul will always be. She was a mother and father - he left us when I was just a toddler. Had to make the decision to induce heart attack to end the suffering, could not get her off life support, she bled out - all over the icu room she was in. It was a horror show. I know she is at a beautiful beach somewhere....her favorite. Unfortunately I got some of the bad genes and am recovering from my third surgery for a very rare form of female cancer. Mom had colon cancer and they also just pulled a malignant polyp out of me. Scared, but the other cancer in the lady parts has me petrified. Need a knight in shining armour!!! Mom I love you and will continue to improve and share this site. Thank you everyone. My email is jpgierce1016@gmail.com and text is 617 365 8121. Blessings to all. currently in southwest florida, Sarasota area.
