“ Shari & Family,

Michael will be sadly missed he was larger than life or maybe louder than life. He made growing up in Trappe exciting and fun living across the street from him was never a dull. Playing ball under the watertower with him was one of my fondest childhood memories. God must had a good reason to take Michael from us lam sure he needed laughter and love in heaven.##imported-begin##Regina Dickerson##imported-end##

“ Dear Sharri and Ally, We have known Mike for many years. He was a warm man with a laugh as big as any we have ever heard. Mike always made time to talk with us and make us laugh. He enjoyed what he did, and he had fun doing it. When he walked in the room he was such a presence, and when he left you always felt better than you did before he came. We at Old Pro Golf will never forget him. I know that Mike is hugging Allen in heaven. With sincere sympathy, Ken and Linda Wood###imported-begin##Ken and Linda Wood###imported-end##
