

Nancy Lee Burrows

October 10, 1939 - November 30, 2019

Nancy Lee Burrows of Easton, MD, died on Saturday, November 30, 2019, at her home surrounded by family. She was 80.

Nancy was born on October 10, 1939, the daughter of the late Charles DeClyde Williamson and Sylvan Mae Lemmon. Nancy was a 1957 graduate of Easton High School and was still regularly catching up with her classmates to go out to lunch. For many years, Nancy was a seamstress and worked for several establishments like McCords and Todd Creations. In addition to working as a seamstress, she sewed all her own curtains and bed covers and mended all her family's clothes herself. Nancy was also a homemaker and passed her love of sewing on to her three daughters. She had a flare for decorating the house and loved the occasional camping trip to Chincoteague.

In addition to her parents, Nancy was preceded in death by her twin sisters, Jessie and Bessie Williamson; and her daughter, Pamela Jane Baynard. She is survived by her husband of 61 years, Denny Wilson Burrows of Easton, MD; daughters, Brenda Lynne (Rodney) Barrow of Tilghman, MD and Wanda Lee (Mark) Swartz of Easton, MD; sisters, Alice Davidson (John), Dorothy Kidwell, Edna Truitt and Ellen Kalusick; and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

“ Denny and family, was so sorry to hear about Nancy's passing. Ronnie Watson called me this morning to let me know and then to hear this afternoon from Norma Higgins just to be sure I knew. We always enjoyed her company at our monthly get-together luncheons with our Class of EHS 1957. She helped us a lot with our Class 50th reunion and cookbook "Down Memory Lane". Anne Price Rieken

Nancy has a special place in my heart. We're missing a big part of our our family. I'll always remember her with a hand on one hip and pointing (to the fact she was right) with the other. I wish I could be there for you.
