

Nancy Lane Clark

August 14, 1937 - April 14, 2024

Nancy Lane Gleeten Clark, 86, Wittman, MD, passed away on April 14, 2024 at Talbot Hospice House, in Easton Md.

Born on August 14, 1937 in Erie, PA, the adopted daughter of the late Wayne A. Gleeten and Gladys Hyder Gleeten. She attended Mercyhurst Seminary, graduating class of 1955. After high school, she graduated from Sullins Junior College in 1957, and attended Penn State University. On June 14, 1960, she married William G. Clark and they resided on the Western shore of Maryland until 1983. She moved to the St. Michaels area in 1983.

Nancy had a diverse career in secretarial work, starting with Steptoe and Johnson in Washington. In 1971, she entered the personnel/human resource field with GEICO, retiring in 1987. She continued her working career with MAIF in the claims field, retiring again as a claims representative in 2000. Since then, she has had a varied career with several other companies in hospitality, owning her own book store, and ended her career with Shaw's Heating Air and Plumbing.

Ms. Clark is active with several boards and organizations such as, the Humane Society of Dorchester County, the Montgomery County Chapter of the American Red Cross, St. Michaels Business Association, and helped found Snip Tuck and Kitty City Rescue. Her proudest moment is being Co-founder of the Old Bags Club.

Nancy is preceded in death by her husband and parents. She is survived by two cousins, Linda Cairns and Chester Russel, and a wonderful fellowship of friends.

“Her time on earth is done, She ran a good race. She kept the faith”
