“ I am saddened to hear of Nancy's passing. Please accept my sincere condolences. I counted Nancy among my favorite people. What a great lady! She was a tireless worker in our Hunger Ministry at Christ Church and one of the gals who got together before Christmas at my house for Ladies' Night Out before the madness began. I was just about to give her a call since I didn't receive an RSVP to this years' festivities...and that is totally unlike her, even if she was sick. You can be sure that on December 20th, many and hearty toasts will be raised to our fiend Nancy who I feel sure will be rocking with us in Heaven!
Though I never met you children and grands of Nancy, you can rest assured that she was a treasured member of our community! I already miss her.

“ To the Craig family, Nancy lived behind my parents house, Nancy and Dick Newton. My mom and Nancy were good friends. She was a lovely person and I often enjoyed conversations with her over the fence on the way to the post office. She even let me hide my kids Christmas presents in her garage a few times over the years. I loved her wit and humor and bright smile. I will miss seeing her. I will be thinking of all of you this holiday season. With fond memories, Cathy Schmidt.
