“ Nancy moved into the Strathmore neighborhood of Syracuse, NY as a young teenager. Her easy smile, playful nature and genuine interest in others, drew people to her. She found many friends and I was happy to be one of them.

Nancy possessed a subtle sense of humor that included a lovely touch of sassiness. She kept her girlfriends laughing and a few young guys along the way baffled yet enchanted.

She was also a careful listener who would do anything to help a friend (or anyone) in need. In high school, I once found myself in immediate and desperate need of a cocktail dress. Nancy flew into action and put together one of her fabulous creations within 48 hours!

It doesn't surprise me to learn that Nancy held management positions during her career and operated her own business. Even as a teenager, Nancy was self-reliant, decisive and capable.

My thoughts and prayers go out to David Hill and family and to George and Toni Franklyn and family. Nancy was a treasure and your sense of loss must be profound. I haven't seen Nancy in decades but I am very, very sad to hear of her passing.

“Kate and I share our deepest sympathies with Dave and the entire family. We are both very sad to hear of her passing. We were just getting to know her better, and we took great delight in her company. Nancy was upbeat, with a ready smile, and with a lovely way of getting people together for good times. We will keep her in our thoughts and prayers, along with Dave and the whole family.

“Sincere sympathy to your family. I have many fond memories of working with Nancy at Diskriter. We kept in touch over the years until she got married. She even brought Santa to visit me when she worked for the temp agency. She was fun loving and I have often wondered where she was living. She will be missed.
