“ During my high school years I lived on Rolling House Rd about 5 doors from the Lathams. Nancy was always a strong positive force in the neighborhood, friendly, cheerful, liked by everyone. My condolences to all the Lathams.

“ Nancy was a special neighbor of ours at Londonderry. She along with others hosted the first Christmas party at the Manor House for the 500s. It was a wonderful time when we all got together. Most of all I remember when she got the stretch laces for her shoes; she was so pleased since the laces took care of one her issues. We're happy that we got to know her and to hear some of her stories.
