“ Nancy and I are new friends. For the past several years, we studied the Bible together. Nancy's family, her church, and the fire company were the important things she talked about --and Bingo. What I admired most about Nancy was her strength and determination. I don 't know a harder working person or one who approached work with more grit and determination and cheerfulness. In hospice, she said: "they told me I don't have to work anymore". Sad and wonderful at the same time.

She is the woman in Proverbs 31: the valiant wife and mother whose children stand up and called her blessed, the woman who fears the Lord and is praised.

God blessed me by letting me know her.

“ Dear All,

Nancy was a true friend in the dearest way. She never gave up and always had a kind word and a big smile! She was always fond of people and you never went anywhere with Nancy without finding someone she know or knew her. We even went shopping in Delaware and their was someone there she knew. She knew many and was a walking historian and told lots of stories about how it was on the Kent Island in the old days. She spoke of her sons, their wives and of course the grandchildren with joy in her eyes and a big smile on her face. In the beginning I didn't know who was who so it took me awhile to learn who they were. I wish the family peace and love in the days ahead and want to tell you we will miss Nancy but she is in our hearts forever. And she made a difference in my life and I know she would wish that you never give up for she is with you in your hearts and mine. There will be times when you cry and think of the funny things and will laugh at the same time. She is home with Jesus and feeling well! Thank you Joey for being so kind to me and keeping up-to-date. Love, Miss Ginger
