“ Nancy n I were friends from the very first day of school at Mercy High. We were all outside n waiting for the doors to open n started chatting. Low n behold we were sent to the same home room n were friends for decades.

I was a bridesmaid in the wedding n spent many a night at her home sleeping over.

I last saw her at her at her n Dave's 30th wedding anniversary . I had a fun time n sadly never saw her since. She was funny, smart n a great friend n mom n wife so loved by Dave.

God Bless her family n you all have my deepest sympathy. Darlene Schmitz

“ Nancy and I always thought it was neat that we shared the same name, Nancy Lee Schisler, and we didn't know each other until we went to Wagonmaker's.
