“ Just heard the sad news from my mother. I remember the wonderful smell of all the many pine trees around your home when my family visited when I was a child, and the ice cream sundae bar that Nancy--only I called her Mrs. Wilson--set out after dinner. I also remember how nice it was that both of you came to my Dad's retirement party in Pittsburgh many years ago. My deepest sympathy to Mr. Wilson--who my Dad always called Fritz--and the children, spouses and grandchildren. Rae (Gloria and Ray's daughter)
