

Nancy A. Kana

November 14, 1922 - July 18, 2009

Nancy Austin Kana of Easton, formerly of Bellport, Long Island, New York, died Saturday July 18, 2009, after a brief illness. She was 86.

Born November 14, 1922, in Patchogue, New York, she is survived by her husband of 63 years, Milan Kana. After living in the Bellport area most of her life, she and her husband retired to Easton in 2002.

Nancy was a lifelong member of the Congregational Church of Patchogue where she served as youth choir director, program director, and church secretary, and where she innovated many new programs. For 25 years she taught swimming lessons to hundreds of children in the community. In 1970 she began a 33-year career as box office manager for the Bellport Gateway Playhouse. She had many hobbies including cooking, dressmaking, and doll collecting. She and Mil also enjoyed many trips to Germany where they acquired lifelong friends.

She is survived by three sons, Tim Kana and his wife, Julie Lumpkin of Columbia, SC, Todd Kana and his wife, Pat Glibert of Easton, MD, Titus Kana and his wife, Jayne Cunniff of New York, NY; seven grandchildren, Chris, Nancy, William, Kate, Austin, Patrick, and Betsy Kana; one granddaughter in law, Andrea Teal, and one great-grandson, Langston Kana. She is also survived by her brother, Jere Austin and his wife, Mary of Salisbury, NC; a brother and sister in law, Al and Gloria Kana of Yonkers, NY, and a sister in law, Daisy Austin of Atlanta, GA.

Family visitation will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein, & Newnam Funeral Home, 200

South Harrison St., Monday, July 20, 5:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Kana Memorial Scholarship Fund of Gateway Playhouse, 215 South Country Road, Bellport, N.Y., 11713.
