

Naomi Ruth Ambrose

February 12, 1987 - February 21, 2013

Naomi Ruth Ambrose of Easton, MD, departed this world suddenly on February 21, 2013, at Memorial Hospital at Easton due to complications of Type 1 diabetes. She was 26 years old.

Naomi arrived in this world at Memorial Hospital at Easton on February 12, 1987. She was the daughter of Mike Ambrose and Lou Ann and Leethian Roberts.

She attended Easton and St. Michaels high schools and was in the Class of 2005.

At the time of her departure, she was employed by JoAnn Fabrics, but will forever be known as a gifted professional artist by various mediums.

She loved and respected nature, art, music, cooking, coffee and all living things, furry, feathered, scaly or otherwise. She looked out for the hurt and wounded and offered encouragement and help in any way she could, every day of her beautiful life.

She touched the lives of everyone she met with smiles, love and laughter. In the short time she was with us, she changed the world for the better, a million times over. She was, and will forever be, an inspiration to us all. She will be sincerely missed.

In addition to her parents, Naomi is survived by her sister, Phoebe Ambrose; her fiancé, Justin Harrison; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. She was preceded in death by a cousin, Lynnette Lanham of Bowie, MD, and her grandparents, Ralph and Linda Farlow of Winchester, IN; Jake and Jean Ambrose of Marion, OH; and Virginia Mae Aquilino, also of Marion, OH. She was also survived by her beloved cat, Fuzzy Buttons, and all the many members of the loved families she chose.

Services will be held at 11:00 a.m. at the Easton Church of God on Friday, March 1, 2013, where friends and family may call Thursday evening, February 28, 2013, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Burial will be at White Marsh Cemetery.

Donations may be made to the American Diabetes Association, 2002 Clipper Park Road, Suite 110, Baltimore, MD 21211.

I have no other way to get in touch with Pheobe Ambrose. If anyone sees this please have her contact prizedscreenname@gmail.com

I have so much to apologize for and it's all the worst that I have to go about contacting her like this, but there's no other way.

“ I was Naomi's fourth grade teacher at Easton Elementary. She always held a special place in my heart. Her sincerity and love of all living things was evident even at an early age. Maybe it was fate, or simply coincidence, that I was able to briefly visit with Naomi at work a couple of weeks before Christmas. We immediately knew each other and were able to have a wonderful conversation. Naomi said things to me that touched me once again. I told her that I think of her each year when I bring out the lovely small decorated tree she gave me for Christmas when she was so young. I left the store that day feeling so blessed to have had that chance to be with Naomi, especially at the holiday time. I am blessed to have known her.

“ One of the best pieces of advice that I have ever received came to me in the form of an Omi doodle. She had written "sometimes you have to cut the loose ends that tie you down" and she drew all around it and gave it to me one night when she was staying with me in Chestertown. Omi was wise beyond her years and she understood long before I did that there is no room in our lives or hearts for bad memories or animosity towards those that have wronged us. She was filled with forgiveness, sympathy, and empathy for everyone she met and projected only love and kindness. I would not be who I am today had she not entered my life and I will never forget the time that I was fortunate enough to share with her. I love you Naomi and I will never forget you

“ From our family to yours we will light our blue candle tonight at home - too many times we have had to light this in memory of someone that has lost their battle with type 1 diabetes - I wish we had known Naomi - but please know your family is in our hearts and prayers as you manage your grief and we pray for peace for all that knew her. Much love from the Holdgreve Family (a fellow family with Type 1 Diabetes)

“ I am not a personal friend, just a person saddened by the death of such a young person and saddened by the fact that death is such a reality. May you be comforted by the Bible's promise of a better time ahead. Revelation 21:4 says "God shall wipe all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying."
