

Nell H. Ogden

October 24, 2004

On Sunday, October 24, 2004, at her home at Bay Woods of Annapolis, Nell H. Ogden passed away after a prolonged battle with cancer. She was 73.

She was born June 11, 1931 to Polly and Charlie Hughes of Baltimore, MD. Nell graduated from Eastern High School and in her teen years developed her life long love for Camp Wright where she was a camper, counselor and later became director. She went on to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree from Western Maryland College in 1953 and worked as a kindergarten teacher in Baltimore.

Before settling on the Eastern Shore, Nell was active in developing tennis programs and playing tennis in Northern Virginia where she was recognized with the Physical Education Leadership award by the Virginia Jaycees. She was also responsible for creating a tennis program for children and adults at Prospect Bay Country Club. She was an active member of the Women's Golf Association at Prospect Bay, the Christ Church Kent Island Choir and the Ladies Red Hat Society.

She has received awards for appreciation of support from the Queen Anne's County Chorale and the Adult Day Care Foundation for Queen Anne's County. Nell was honored by the Centreville Rotary Club as a Citizen of the Year finalist for her contributions to Queen Anne's County.

Surviving are her husband William J. Ogden; two children, Polly Fenig of Charlotte, NC and W. Joseph Ogden of Williamsburg, VA; a brother, Charles F. Hughes of Baltimore, MD and five grandchildren.

A memorial service to celebrate her life will be held at Christ Church, Kent Island on Thursday, October 28, 2004 at 1:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly suggests expressions of sympathy be made to the Christ Church Building Fund, 830 Romancoke Road, Stevensville, MD 21666, or the Kent Island Adult Day Care - Percy Thomas Center, c/o Joy Bloodsworth, 206 N. Commerce St., Centreville, MD 21617.
