

Nellie Greenwood

May 6, 1920 - May 5, 2011

Nellie Dantonio Greenwood of Worton, MD died Thursday, May 5, 2011 at Heartfield Assisted Living in Easton, MD. She was 90 years old.

Mrs. Greenwood was born on May 6, 1920 in Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of the late, Ralph and Dorothy Dantonio. She worked as an Elementary School Teacher and Librarian for Chestertown Elementary School.

She was a member of Still Pond United Methodist Church where she directed the choir for many years, The Order of the Eastern Star Chapter #86, the Kent County Retired Teachers Association, the Maryland State Retired Teachers Association, the Golden Age of Kent County, and a member of the Kent County Homemakers.

She loved playing the piano, playing cards, and she enjoyed volunteering at Magnolia Hall as the Bingo Coordinator.

Mrs. Greenwood is survived by her son, James C. Greenwood and wife, Nancy of Worton, MD and one grandson, Bryan Carson Greenwood of Chestertown, MD. She was preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, James Franklin Greenwood in 2009.

Graveside services will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to the Still Pond United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 32, Kennedyville, MD 21645 or the Betterton Volunteer Fire Company, P.O. Box 235, Betterton, Maryland 21610.

“ *Jimmy, Nancy, and Bryan,
We were so saddened to hear of the passing of your mother and grandmother. Some of my best childhood memories are times spent at your place in Still Pond and Betterton Beach. A summer would not have been the same without visiting Aunt Nellie and Uncle Jimmie. Your family will be forever in our hearts and prayers.##imported-begin##Shelley (Morgans) & Warren

“ James, Nancy & Bryson:
My deepest sympathies to you in the homegoing of your beloved mother, mother-in-law and grandmother, Nellie Greenwood. She was my very first librarian at Chestertown Elementary School, and I adored her. Whenever I would see her out in the community, she would always stop, call my name and with undivided attention ask me how I was doing. She never had an unkind word to say, never and always looked lovely. Her smile and her eyes are now in my memory as unforgettable. God be your strength, my friends. My prayers are with you. Please know she was deply loved by all her students.
Sincerely in Christ,
