“ Sally, I send love and prayers to you. I am so sorry to hear about the passing of my Uncle Nelson. Although we haven't seen one another in many years, I have such fond memories of times spent together especially when Lesa and I were children and our Uncles, Welly Doug, and Nelson would be together when we would come home for the holidays. My heartfelt love and prayers to you.##imported-begin##Ida MacDonald##imported-end##

“ *Sorry for your loss. May you find hope in the words at Acts 24:15, "and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Resurrection is a standing up again, a coming to life. It is what the Lord did for his friend Lazarus (John 11:43-44) and will do for our love ones.(John 5:28-29) May these words and your good memories bring you a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##R.
