

Nicholas E. Bramble

November 22, 2005

Nicholas E. “Nick” Bramble of Easton, MD died on Tuesday, November 22, 2005, after a courageous battle with leukemia, at University of Maryland Hospital, Baltimore, MD. He was 19.

Born February 8, 1986 in Easton, MD, he was the son of D’Arcy E., Jr. and Donna Marie Foster Bramble. He was a 2004 graduate of St. Michaels High School. During his high school years, he was a member of the National Honor Society, Who’s Who of American High School Students, SGA and played four years on the baseball and soccer teams. He received various awards and scholarships. Nick was attending Randolph-Macon College in Ashland, VA where he was a member of the baseball team. He was also a member of the Easton Church of God and in his spare time he loved hunting, crabbing and various sports, with baseball being his true love.

A fighter who never gave up, Nick always had a positive attitude, always set goals for himself and had a great sense of humor.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Amanda M. Bramble, and Caroline A. Bramble; one brother, Christopher D. Bramble; maternal grandparents, Donald D. and Ellen Marie Foster; paternal grandparents, D’Arcy, Sr. and Dolly Bramble; an uncle, Donald T. Foster and his wife Andrea; and two cousins, Michael J. Foster and Nicole R. Foster, all of Easton.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 26, 2005 at 11:00 AM at the Easton Church of God. Friends may call at the church on Friday evening from 6 to 8 PM and one hour prior to the service on Saturday.

Burial will be at Oxford Cemetery, Oxford, MD. Serving as pallbearers will be, Robby Hambleton, Harold "H.B." Baines, Jr., Dane Madsen, Ryan Graves, Mitchell Hughes, Michael Foster, and honorary pallbearer, Arty Lee Foster.
