

Norman Wooters

July 17, 1919 - July 28, 2011

Norman Floyd Wooters formerly of Wye Heights Plantation, Easton, Maryland. departed this life Thursday, July 28, 2011.

Born on July 17, 1919 to the late, Harry and Nettie Cooper Wooters of Denton, Maryland, he was preceded in death by his wife the former, Mary M. Johnson who died on May 10, 2001. He is survived by four children, Floyd C. and Gervios Wooters of Cordova, Virginia L. and Jay Shores of Easton, Rose and Larry Blades of Preston and Howard L. and Patty Wooters of Greensboro. He has eight grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, one great great granddaughter and three surviving sister, Nettie Robinson, Ruth Shelson and Louise Cassidy.

As a young man, he volunteered as a deputy for Caroline County sheriff George Clark. He laughed that many a time he had to go to a bar and break up a fight of some of his best friends. Norman's life work was farming. When trying to enlist during WWII, he was told he was needed more to feed the troops. He took those words to heart. The sun, the moon and the tides were his guides while his love of the land was his prize.

A funeral service will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home in Easton, on Friday, August 5 at 1:00 pm. where friends may call one hour prior to the service. Interment will be at Concord Cemetery, Concord, Maryland.

Tribute Wall

“ Norman Wooters

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ Norman Wooters

January 28, 2023 at 12:44 PM

“ Norman Wooters

January 28, 2023 at 08:03 AM

“ vWXGwl cxvnysqrcxkn##imported-begin##lpwlkwlbkgx##imported-end##

August 09, 2011 at 01:43 PM

“ h74gKa macwrixawyag##imported-begin##srmolquae##imported-end##

August 05, 2011 at 01:30 PM

“ I was really confused, and this answered all my qeuistons.##imported-begin##Kapri##imported-end##

August 05, 2011 at 01:31 AM