

Norris Morgan Hall

March 29, 1935 - March 29, 2016

Norris Morgan Hall left this earthly life for this heavenly home on his 81st birthday, March 29, 2016. He was born in the farmhouse on his Sparks' grandparents farm near his hometown in Church Hill on a blustery spring day. Born to the late Edith Sparks Hall and N. Morgan Hall, Norris spent all of his childhood and most of his adult years in Queen Anne's County, MD. He moved to Westminster Village in Dover, DE, in September of 2011.

He graduated from Centreville High School in 1953, where he was active in clubs and was a member of the varsity basketball team. He continued his education at the University of Delaware where he majored in Civil Engineering. While there, he met the love of his life, Harriette Dawson, whom he later married and started a life together which spanned over 61 years.

Norris' first major construction project was the building of the segment of US Rt. 301 through Price, MD. This was Norris' start in the road construction field which continued for the rest of his working life. He worked for such companies as F.P. Asher and Sons; James Julian and Sons and David A. Bramble Inc., for whom he was employed for over 26 years. In January of 1986, Norris fulfilled a lifelong dream by forming his own business, Mid-Shore Paving Company. Together, with his wife Harriette, they grew the business to become a well-known and respected paving company in the middle Eastern Shore area.

In 1992, Norris and Harriette retired after selling their company to Genstar Stone Products. He continued as a consultant for them and several other companies as well as managing several rental properties in Maryland and Florida.

High on Norris' list of priorities was attending sports and other activities of his three children and his grandchildren. Norris was always active in churches he attended, the lengthiest membership being First United Methodist Church in Chestertown, MD, where he was a member for over 40 years. He served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the church for over 20 years. He also served on various committees and other activities. During the years of Church League basketball in Kent County, MD, Norris coached the girls team where he led them to two championships. He took great pride in being a coach and mentor to this group of girls. Under his leadership the church established a scholarship fund for worthy high school graduates of their congregation. Community service was important to Norris. He was a former president of the Church Hill Lions Club and a member of Chestertown Elks Lodge #2474. Norris served on the Board of Governors and was a past president of the Chester River Yacht and Country Club. He was a current member of Maple Dale Country Club in Dover, DE, where he enjoyed many rounds of golf with his new-found Dover friends. Norris' hobbies were golfing, reading, traveling, playing bridge, and establishing a backyard sanctuary for birds.

In addition to his parents, Norris was preceded in death by his grandparents, Oscar and Rose Sparks and Theobald and Sarah Katherine (Sally) Hall, as well as a daughter, Doris Ann Ferguson Heasley, in 2010.

He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Harriette Ann Dawson Hall; a daughter, Nancy Ruth Coleman and her husband Tim of Dover, DE; a son, Curtis

Edward Hall and his wife Cheryl of Fair Hill, MD; grandchildren, Christopher Landing; Kathryn (Katie) Landing Klages (Will); Addison Grewen (Emily); Lacey Ann Ferguson Douthat (Luke); Thomas (Tom) Hall; Hunter Hall; and a step-granddaughter, Tara Coleman (Josh Clark). He took great delight in the addition of his great-grandchildren, Hayden and Shayla Klages, and Dakota Grewen; step great-grands, Hayleigh and Mason Clark. Additional survivors are his sister, Barbara Hall Dunn of Wilmington, DE and her three sons; and a special couple, Mary Lynn Cameron and her husband Donald of Secretary, MD.

A funeral service will be held on Monday, April 4, 2016, at 11 a.m., at Fellows Helfenbein & Newnam in Chestertown, MD. Friends may call at the funeral home on Sunday evening. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to Dover Hospice Home Care, 16 Polly Drummond Center, Polly Drummond Shopping Center, Newark, DE 19711 or to Wyoming United Methodist Church, 216 Wyoming Mill Road, Dover, DE 19904.
