

Patricia Cipriano

May 1, 1956 - July 28, 2023

Patricia Cipriano (nee Derby) of Centreville, MD, has gone to heaven on July 28, 2023.

She was the devoted wife of Tony Cipriano; loving mother of Anthony Cipriano; mother-in-law of Abigail Cipriano; adoring "mommom" to Gavin, Grace, Jack, and Rowen Cipriano; constant cousin to Cathe Kender, and Jane Wright both of PA; sister to three; a loyal friend to many; and compassionate teacher to hundreds of children.

Patricia should be remembered as a faithful woman who had a compassion for all of God's creations. Father Clemmens of Our Mother of Sorrow will preside over a private graveside service.

Memorial contributions can be made in honor of Patricia to Our Mother of Sorrow Church, 303 Chesterfield Avenue, Centreville, MD 21617.

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Cipriano

October 26, 2023 at 06:42 PM

“ *So sorry to lose another 1970 classmate with such a big smile. RIP
My prayers to the family.
Lisa Shea*

Lisa Shea - August 07, 2023 at 10:39 AM

“ Oh I'm so sorry to hear about Patty. The last we spoke she was moving closer to Anthony and leaving the island once again. I often touched base with her when I would visit my Mom on KI. Patty was so kind and would check in on my Mom whenever she could. She would take her little gifts, candy or plants. Mom thought of Patty as another daughter. I'm so sad that I won't be able to see her again. So many fond memories. And boy did she remind me of Nell, her Mom. Patty and I could talk for hours and the laughter came so easy. She once let me have an Arbonne party at her home and that tells you how much she did for people! As a child, her next door neighbor, I recall her welcoming friendship and her playing games with me and Sharon. Hugs to all her family. I know how much she adored her son Anthony and grandchild. My thoughts and prayers for you all.

Dani Woodhurst - August 05, 2023 at 02:52 PM

VR

“ Patti was my neighbor in Queen Anne Colony in the early 1970s. I often think of her as her smile and care free lively personality was impossible to deny. Her family and mine spent many good times together at bbqs and pool parties in our back yards. She always made a big friendly impression on every person who met her. My mom, Kay Roser, was especially fond of her and kept in touch with her and Sharon for many decades. I know she will be deeply missed by many.

Veronica Roser - August 01, 2023 at 07:08 PM

LW

“ I met Patti a little over 4 years ago when we both moved into the same over 55 community. We seemed to have an instant connection and shared our life histories with each other. We talked about our love for our children. She was also a “mommom” to 4 sweet grand children she took great pride in. I was already retired and she looked forward to retiring and having many adventures with her beloved Tony. Shortly after retiring she got the diagnosis that no one ever wants to hear. She was so hopeful that she could beat it but in the end it beat her. She fought so hard for so long until she could not fight any more. I will miss my sweet friend, her quirkiness, our chats on her back patio over tea, her kindness and concern for others even on the days when she was feeling low. Our time was cut short “sis”, but our memories are treasured in my heart forever. You were the precious and unique friend I cared for so dearly. Rest easy now my sweet friend.. no more pain or suffering. You are finally at peace and I know we will meet again. ❤️

Linda Wharton - July 31, 2023 at 05:11 PM

DB

“Patty has always been close in heart since the first day we met in our freshman year at UMBC in 1974. We immediately connected and I instantly loved her authenticity, love for life, her giggle and light hearted spirit. She never took sides and was kind and respectful to everyone. She had a curiosity for life, challenged herself with her educational achievements and entrepreneurial enthusiasm to make a difference, especially with teaching. She was kind, shared her trips with Tony and all their adventures and how proud she was of Anthony being the father and husband he was. She spoke lovingly about her grandchildren and so grateful for them, and being able to be a part of their lives. We used to meet in Little Italy, Baltimore, for lunch and would talk endlessly about our dreams, our businesses, we strategized together over marketing and expansion idea's and I truly loved our conversations and often called her for advise or to run a idea past her. I will miss her dearly. She is with her Mom and other family now who I was fortunate to meet one weekend when she brought me home from college to meet them. The eastern shore was so rural then, and I remember it took 2 hours to drive her mother's dog to the vet, who managed to chew the faux fur off my winter coat which we would always still laugh about. It hurts to loose her. I will truly miss you Patty, but I know we will meet again my friend. All my love, Debbie xxoo

Deborah Eich Bakalich - July 30, 2023 at 12:45 PM