“ My family and I would like to thank everyone for all of the well wishes, cards, phone calls, and condolences regarding the recent passing of my wife Patti. We also appreciate all of you who were able to attend her Celebration of Life event at the Chesapeake Bay Beach Club as well as those who have made contributions in her name to the Compass Regional Hospice and Chesapeake Bay Foundation.

It was wonderful to see so many friends, teachers and family members who came to celebrate her legacy as a wife, mom, educator, and beloved friend. We also want to thank all of you who helped support both her and our family during the many years of her illness. We couldn't have managed her care without the help of those on her medical team as well as our many friends and family that supported us through this difficult time.

Thank you so much and I want to wish you all the very best. Take care.

“ Patti was born to be a teacher. When we were kids, she would pretend she was our teacher. My dad fixed up an old shed with a huge black board, school desks and old school books, geography, algebra, reading. There was a large school bell on top of a post in the yard. Patti would ring the bell and we would climb into the shed and pretend to be in school. She would put math problems on the chalk board, give us little tests, we even packed brown bag lunches, just like the real thing. It was great. I will love you forever Patti, sisters strong. Kathy

My dear friend Patti. We met in dorm 2 at UMBC and serendipitously began our teaching careers together at Church Hill Elementary. I'll never forget when the nurse came excitedly into my hospital room on March 18th saying, "I've got your friend, your friend!" Confusing as it was, it became clear when she said, "She has 2 names like you." It took me a minute, having just given birth, to realize the 2 names were Jones-Gaudette. She welcomed Abby and I welcomed Erin. I'm lucky to have had a life intertwined with yours Patti.

Dear Bob - We're so sorry to hear of your loss. When the four of us met so many years ago at UMBC and shared good times, who knew that Patti would later teach our daughter, Caitlin. Our thoughts are with you.

Dear Bob and family, I just had to let you know how saddened I am upon hearing of Patti's passing. She was without a doubt an amazing woman and dear friend. Having know Patti since grade school there are so many memories and stories which will always be a part of my life. It is my sincere wish that you and the family hold tight to all the happy memories and adventures that each of you shared with Patti to help lighten your loss.
